

Haynes Artist, Marco Granados epitomizes the 21st century musician, maintaining a versatile career as an innovative chamber musician, an international concerto and recital soloist, and a lead teaching artist and educator. He has had recital debuts at Carnegie Hall in NYC and Wigmore Hall in London, and has recently been a featured soloist and teacher for the NJ Flute Society, The Utah Flute and Colorado Flute Associations, Four Seasons Arts in CA, and Merkin Concert Hall in NYC to name a few. He is the founder of the Granados Music Institute, an innovative program for aspiring flutists. www.granadosmusicinstitute.com